Reasons for allowance

1. This communication is in response to applicant's 05/10/2006 amendment in the application of Tam et al. for the "Unified distributed architecture for a multi-point video conference and interactive broadcast systems" filed 11/38/2000. The proposed amendment has been entered and made of record. Claims 10, 17 have been canceled per applicant's request, and claims 1, 6, 11, 12, 18 have been amended to better point out and more distinctly claim subject matter comprising the invention.

2. Claims 1-9, 11-16 and 18 are allowable as evident by applicant's amendment (Claims are renumbered as 1-16 respectively).

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record fails to disclose or suggest a network architecture for a video communications system, comprising: a server for receiving login data for a video communications (VC) session from a plurality of participants, each participant being associated with a client machine; a controller configured to control the VC session based on the login data; and a plurality of geographically-dispersed reflectors; the plurality of reflectors each being configured to service one or more client machines based on a network proximity between the reflector and the client machine; the controller being operable to configure one or more of the reflectors based on the login data for the purpose of routing audio/visual (AV) data between two or more client machines; and an audio/visual viewer comprising: a network interface configured to receive audio/visual signals from a plurality of participants; a codec for compressing and decompressing audio/visual signals, a mixer for mixing the audio signals transmitted from a plurality of participants; and a video display for displaying the video signals transmitted from a plurality of participants such that the video display simultaneously displays each visual signal from each participant of the plurality of participants, as specifically recited in the claims.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
